

I firmly support the New Jersey "Do Not Call" law. Telemarketers invade everyone's privacy in their own homes with these unsolicited telephone calls, especially at dinner time when we are with our families. These calls must be stopped by all means.